BACKGROUND

1. This is an action against the Insurers for breach of contract and declaratory judgment, seeking damages and a declaration of the rights, duties, and liabilities of the parties pursuant to the terms of certain insurance policies and/or certificates. Further, this is an action seeking declaratory relief to determine the extent of the rights of the above-named Debtor in said insurance policies and/or certificates and the extent to which those rights may be property of the estate under 11 U.S.C. § 541.

2. Effective August 14, 2019, the New York State Legislature enacted the Child Victims Act ("CVA"), which allows claimants to file and pursue previously time-barred claims alleging sexual abuse. Prior to the CVA, the statute of limitations prevented claimants from asserting such claims.

3. As a result of the CVA, multiple claims and suits have been alleged against the Parishes and/or the Diocese alleging that the Parishes and/or the Diocese are liable for damages stemming from their purported negligence in connection with the alleged sexual abuse injuries (the “Underlying Actions and Claims”).

4. As a result of the CVA, Underling Actions and Claims may continue to be alleged against the Parishes and/or Diocese alleging that the Parishes are liable for damages stemming from their purported negligence in connection with the alleged sexual abuse injuries.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

364. On or about February 28, 2020, the Diocese filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.

365. Pursuant to §§ 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Diocese continues to operate and manage its property as a debtor-in-possession.

366. This Court has personal jurisdiction over each Defendant because each Defendant has sufficient contacts with the State of New York. Further, each otherwise availed itself of the markets of New York.

367. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction as this adversary proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157 insofar as it seeks to determine the extent and nature of the interests of the bankruptcy estate in certain policies and/or certificates and rights under said policies and/or certificates of insurance, under 11 U.S.C. § 541.

368. Alternatively, this Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1334(b) because this is an action arising in or related to the Diocese’s bankruptcy proceeding, which is a case under Title 11 of the United States Code.

369. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(a) and 1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the dispute occurred in this District, including the issuance of the respective insurance policies and/or certificates at issue.

THE INSURANCE POLICIES

370. The Parishes are within the Diocese. Upon information and belief, at various times from at least 1950 to approximately 1973, in consideration of premiums paid by the Parishes, the Diocese or the Diocesan corporations, the Insurers, among others, sold or acquired responsibility for primary general liability insurance policies and/or certificates, as well as certain umbrella and/or excess liability policies and/or certificates, sold to the Parishes (the “Insurance Policies”).

371. The Insurance Policies provide coverage for individual Parishes. Upon information and belief, some or all the Insurance Policies also provide coverage for the Diocese as an additional insured.

372. Upon information and belief, each of the Insurance Policies requires the Insurers to pay on behalf of the insured(s) all sums that the insured(s) become legally obligated to pay as a result of bodily injury, as long as any part of the injury took place, and with regard to certain Insurance Policies a claim was made, during the policy period.

373. Upon information and belief, each of the Insurance Policies also requires the Insurers to pay defense costs and expenses, including attorney’s fees, incurred by the insured(s) in the investigation and defense of the Underlying Actions and Claims. This obligation applies even if the allegations against the insured(s) are groundless, false, or fraudulent.

374. Upon information and belief, the Parishes, the Diocese, and/or Diocesan corporations, timely paid all premiums due under the Insurance Policies.

THE UNDERLYING ACTIONS

375. The Underlying Actions and Claims contain allegations against the Parishes and/or the Diocese. The claimants in the Underlying Actions and Claims allege that the Parishes and/or the Diocese were negligent and the claimants suffered injuries resulting from alleged sexual abuse.

376. The Parishes and/or Diocese have fulfilled all of their duties and conditions under each of the Insurance Policies, including timely notifying Defendants of Underlying Actions and Claims and at all times cooperating with the Insurers' reasonable requests.

377. The Parishes and/or Diocese are entitled to all benefits provided by the Insurance Policies.

378. The Underlying Actions and Claims are covered by the Insurance Policies.

379. The Insurers have failed to acknowledge their full coverage obligations to (a) defend or pay for the defense of the Parishes and/or Diocese and/or (b) indemnify the Parishes and/or Diocese, including the funding of any past and future settlements or judgments, in connection with the Underlying Actions and Claims, despite the Parishes' timely request that they do so.

380. By failing to acknowledge their full coverage obligations to defend and/or indemnify the Parishes and/or Diocese in connection with some or all of the Underlying Actions and Claims, the Insurers have breached their contractual obligations to the Parishes. Consequently, an actual and justiciable claim exists as to all Insurers named as Defendants in this action.

COUNT I

Declaratory Judgment Against All Insurers – Duty to Defend

381. The Parishes and Diocese repeat and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 380 above with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

382. The Parishes and Diocese seek a judicial determination of the rights and duties of the Parishes and the Insurers with respect to an actual controversy arising out of the Insurance Policies.

383. Pursuant to the terms of the Insurance Policies, each of the Insurers is obligated to pay in full the expenditures made by Parishes and/or the Diocese to defend themselves against the Underlying Actions and Claims.

384. The Insurers have refused or failed or may refuse or fail to accept their legal obligations to pay in full for the Parishes' and the Diocese's defense of some or all of the Underlying Actions and Claims.

385. The Insurers' refusal or failure to defend the Parishes and/or the Diocese constitutes a breach of the Policies.

386. An actual controversy of a justiciable nature presently exists between the Parishes and/or Diocese, and the Insurers concerning the proper construction of the Insurance Policies and the rights and obligations of the parties thereto with respect to the Parishes' and/or the Diocese's defense costs attributable to some or all of the Underlying Actions and Claims. The controversy is of sufficient immediacy and magnitude to justify the issuance of a declaratory judgment.

387. The issuance of declaratory relief by this Court will terminate some or all of the existing controversy between the parties.

COUNT II

Breach of Contract Against All Insurers Seeking Damages – Duty to Defend

388. The Parishes and Diocese repeat and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 387 above with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

389. The Parishes and Diocese have incurred and may continue to incur substantial damages in the form of costs to defend themselves against the Underlying Actions and Claims for which each of the Insurers is responsible pursuant to the terms of the Insurance Policies.

390. The Insurance Policies are valid and enforceable contracts providing insurance coverage for the damages incurred by the Parishes and/or the Diocese.

391. The Parishes and/or Diocese have given timely notice of the Underlying Actions and Claims.

392. The Parishes and/or Diocese substantially performed all material obligations on their part to be performed under the Insurance Policies.

393. Each of the Insurers that received notice of the Underlying Actions and Claims has refused to accept its legal obligations to pay the Parishes' and/or the Diocese's defense costs in response to some or all of the Underlying Actions and Claims.

394. Each of the Insurers' failure to defend the Parishes and/or the Diocese constitutes a breach of the Insurance Policies.

395. As a direct and proximate result of each of the Insurers' breach of the Insurance Policies, the Parishes and/or the Diocese are suffering and will continue to suffer damages equal to the sums they would be entitled to recover as benefits under the Insurance Policies.

COUNT III

Declaratory Judgment Against All Insurers – Duty to Indemnify

396. The Parishes and the Diocese repeat and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 395 above with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

397. The Parishes and the Diocese seek a judicial determination of the rights and duties of the Parishes and/or the Diocese, and the Insurers with respect to an actual controversy arising out of the Insurance Policies.

398. Pursuant to the terms of the Insurance Policies, each of the Insurers is obligated to indemnify the Parishes and/or the Diocese for, or pay on their behalf, all sums that the Parishes and/or Diocese become obligated to pay, through judgment, settlement, or otherwise, arising out of the Underlying Actions and Claims.

399. The Insurers have refused or failed or may refuse or fail to accept their legal obligations to indemnify the Parishes and/or the Diocese for the total sums that the Parishes and/or the Diocese are legally obligated to pay as a result of some or all of the Underlying Actions and Claims.

400. Each of the Insurers' refusal or failure to indemnify the Parishes and/or the Diocese constitutes a breach of the Policies.

401. An actual controversy of a justiciable nature presently exists between the Parishes and the Diocese and the Insurers concerning the proper construction of the Insurance Policies and the rights and obligations of the parties thereto with respect to the Underlying Actions and Claims. The controversy is of sufficient immediacy and magnitude to justify the issuance of a declaratory judgment.

402. The issuance of declaratory relief by this Court will terminate some or all of the existing controversy between the parties.

COUNT IV

Breach of Contract Against All Insurers Seeking Damages – Duty to Indemnify

403. The Parishes and the Diocese repeat and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 402 above with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

404. The Parishes and/or the Diocese incurred damages in the form of costs to pay settlements and/or judgments in the Underlying Actions and Claims for which each of the Insurers is responsible pursuant to the terms of the Insurance Policies.

405. The Policies are valid and enforceable contracts providing insurance coverage for the damages incurred by the Parishes and/or the Diocese.

406. The Parishes and/or the Diocese have given timely notice of the Underlying Actions and Claims.

407. The Parishes and/or the Diocese substantially performed all material obligations on their part to be performed under the Insurance Policies.

408. Each of the Insurers that received notice of the Underlying Actions and Claims has refused to accept its legal obligations to provide coverage for the Parishes and/or the Diocese in response to some or all of the Underlying Actions and Claims.

409. Each of the Insurers' failure to indemnify the Parishes and/or the Diocese constitutes a breach of the Insurance Policies.

410. As a direct and proximate result of each of the Insurers' breach of the Insurance Policies, the Parishes and/or the Diocese are suffering and will continue to suffer damages equal to the sums they would be entitled to recover as benefits under the Insurance Policies.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Parishes pray for judgment as follows:

1. On Count I, the Parishes and the Diocese request that this Court enter a declaratory judgment in favor of the Parishes and the Diocese against each of the Insurers, declaring that each of the Insurers is severally and indivisibly obligated to pay the costs of defending the Parishes and, to the extent covered as an additional insured, the Diocese, against the Underlying Actions and Claims, together with attorneys' fees and costs and pre-judgment interest;

2. On Count II, the Parishes and the Diocese request that this Court enter a judgment in favor of the Parishes and the Diocese and severally and indivisibly against each of the Insurers that have received notice of the Underlying Actions and Claims, and award compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, as well as pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on those amounts of defense costs which each of the Insurers wrongfully refused to pay the Parishes and, to the extent covered as an additional insured, the Diocese, together with attorneys' fees and costs;

3. On Count III, the Parishes and the Diocese request that this Court enter a declaratory judgment in favor of the Parishes and the Diocese against each of the Insurers, declaring that each of the Insurers is severally obligated to indemnify the Parishes, and, to the extent covered as an additional insured, the Diocese, for any judgments and/or settlements attributable to the Underlying Actions and Claims, together with attorneys' fees and costs and pre-judgment interest;

4. On Count IV, the Parishes and the Diocese request that this Court enter a judgment in favor of the Parishes and the Diocese and severally against each of the Insurers that have received notice of the Underlying Actions and Claims, and award compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, as well as pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on those amounts of indemnity costs which each of the Insurers wrongfully refused to pay the Parishes, and, to the extent covered as an additional insured, the Diocese, together with attorneys' fees and costs;

5. Additionally, the Parishes and the Diocese request such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

The Parishes and the Diocese request a trial by jury on any issue so triable.
